

Ordem dos biólogos

FUNDAÇÃO SERRALVES

MarBEF WORKSHOP on an EUROPEAN MONITORING NETWORK 2009

Program

March 12 (Thursday)

Arrival of participants

March 13 (Friday)

09h30m: Introductions

Welcome and introduction to the workshop – Isabel Sousa Pinto
Objectives in the workshop – Jon Parr

09h50m: Presentations of existing monitoring projects

MoBIDiC – The school goes to the beach (Isabel Sousa Pinto)
The Shore Thing - Get involved in intertidal recording (Fiona Crouch and Jon Parr)
Experience in Poland (Lech Kotwicki)
Experience in Greece (Christos Arvanitidis)

11h00m: Coffee break

11h30m: Discussion session on best practice/protocols – what works for a European Funding Proposal

Engagement with public/schools – what do partners want/what level?
Scientific rigour – is it important?
Geographical coverage: Where/why – pan European or linked surveys
Partnership coverage – who is missing, expressions of interest

12h30m: Lunch

14h00m: Data management

Experience in the United Kingdom - Jon Parr
Quality of data – what is the survey for 'data' or awareness?
Species/habitat, soft versus hard, issue led?

Ordem dos biólogos

FUNDAÇÃO SERRALVES

15h00m: Opening of “Spring School for an European Monitoring Network 2009”

15h30m: Continue discussions

Agree aims of a European marine programme of public engagement monitoring
Introduction to identified funding opportunities and discussion of other sources
Discussion on actions and tasks.

18h00m: End of activities

19h30m: Visit to Caves Taylor’s

20h30m: Dinner at Cais de Gaia, Pasta Caffé restaurant

22h00m: Rio Douro cruise

March 14 (Saturday)

09h00m: Practical session on shore – Praia do Molhe, Foz do Douro - Porto

12h30m: Lunch at Pousada da Juventude

15h00m: Fundação de Serralves

Feedback from Practical Spring School – what works/what doesn’t?
Look at possible funding opportunities
Develop funding proposal
Web site content
Workshop report
Actions

17h30m: Cultural program: Visit to Serralves Garden and Museum

20h00m: Dinner at Pousada da Juventude

21h00m: Country presentation by participant groups

Pousada da Juventude – Porto

<http://juventude.gov.pt/Portal/Lazer/pt/PPorto.htm>